ABSTRACT (11Bold) : The abstract should summarize the paper. Try to keep the abstract under 200 words. Do not make any references. Please keep in mind that the manuscript you prepare will be published as it is received.(10 Italic)

Keywords (11Bold) - About five key words in alphabetical order, separated by comma (10 Italic)

I. INTRODUCTION (11 BOLD)

The introduction of the paper should explain the nature of the problem, purpose and the contribution of the paper.(10)

II. CASE (11 BOLD)

Case will be presented in this section. The headings and subheadings should be set in bold and flush left. The font size for heading is 11 points bold face and subsections with 10 points and not bold. Do not underline any of the headings, or add dashes, colons, etc. (10)

To ensure a high-quality product, diagrams and lettering MUST be either computer-drafted or drawn using India ink.

Figure explanations, located above the figure, should be flush left, and should be in lower case letters. When referring to a figure in the body of the text, the abbreviation "Fig." should be used and should be numbered in the order they locate in the text.

Table explanations located centered above the table should be in upper and lower case letters. When referring to a table in the text, abbreviation should not be used and "Table" should be capitalized. (10)

III. DISCUSSION (11 BOLD)

The first paragraph under each heading or subheading should be flush left, and subsequent paragraphs should have a five-space indentation. When a colon is inserted before an equation, there should not be punctuations after the equation. All equations should be numbered only by a number in a parenthesis to be referred in the text.(i.e., (3) reads as "equation 3"). Be sure that any confusing numbering system you use in your paper cannot be mixed up with a reference [4] or an equation (3) designation. (10)

IV. CONCLUSION (11 BOLD)

A conclusion section should indicate clearly the advantages, limitations, and possible applications of the paper. A conclusion should indicate the main points of the paper, so do not make the conclusion the same as the abstract.(10)

V. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS (11 Bold)

An acknowledgement section may be presented after the conclusion, if desired. (10)

REFERENCES (11 BOLD)

This heading is not assigned a number.

A reference list should be included using the following information as a guide. Only cited text references should be included. Each reference should be referred to in the text by a number in a square bracket (i.e., [3]). References should be numbered and ordered according to where they are first mentioned in the paper, NOT alphabetically.

Examples follow:

References: Resources should be listed according to their location in the text. In the text, the resource number should be stated in the parenthesis with a full stop at the end of the sentences. If there are more than six authors, six authors' name should be written clearly after that in the Turkish articles et al., in the English articles et al. should be stated after the six authors' name.

Suggested reference samples according to different kinds of resources;
